

- Rule 62. (1) A jockey or an apprentice whose licence has been suspended in accordance with these Rules or by any other Recognised Racing Authority shall not ride in any race during the period of his suspension.
- (2) If a jockey or an apprentice becomes a disqualified person his licence is thereby revoked.
- Rule 63. A list containing the names of all licensed jockeys and apprentices shall be kept at the Registry Office and shall be published at such times and in such manner as the Stewards of the Jockey Club may direct.
- Rule 64. A jockey or an apprentice and the trainer to whom he is allocated commits a breach or is a party to committing a breach of these Rules who: -
- (1) wilfully or without reasonable cause breaks a riding engagement; or
  - (2) permits himself or his apprentice to be engaged to ride two or more horses declared or deemed to have been declared for the same race; or
  - (3) wilfully or without reasonable cause permits himself or his apprentice to be engaged to ride a horse when he knows or ought to know that he will not be able to ride the horse at the weight which it is handicapped to carry, or such other weight at which he agrees to ride the horse.

Jockeys' Fees and Retainers

- Rule 65. (1) The riding fee for a jockey at meetings registered by the Club shall be determined from time to time by the Stewards of the Jockey Club and shall be payable when the jockey has weighed-out for and is fit to ride in a race. In addition he shall be entitled to 10% of the value of the prize if his mount is the winner of a race, and 5% of the value of the prize if his mount is placed second, third, fourth or fifth in every race and sixth in certain prestige races as defined in the Racing Calendar.
- (2) For the purposes of this Rule the value of the prize shall not include either any trophy won under the conditions of the race or any money or trophy won for any person other than the nominator.
- Rule 66. Riding fees for apprentices shall be half the amount payable as above to jockeys.
- Rule 67. A retainer or any agreement or special arrangement for a jockey must be in writing, in accordance with the Instructions and lodged for registration with the Stipendiary Stewards.
- Rule 68. If a jockey is prevented from riding by disqualification or suspension any person who has retained him may cancel the retainer.

Rule 69. The Stewards of the Jockey Club shall maintain a register in which all approved retainers are to be entered.

Calculation of Prize Money

- Rule 70. (1) In calculating the amount a horse has won in any one or more races account shall be taken of all moneys whether derived from stakes, bonus or any other source gained by it for its owner or for any other person, excluding any prize given specifically in the conditions of the race to the trainer, jockey or stable.
- (2) The value of a race to the winner after deduction of the entrance fee but before deduction of the percentages payable as prescribed by these Rules, and in the case of a dead-heat after the prizes have been divided as prescribed by these Rules, shall be used for the purpose of calculating penalties, allowances and qualifications.

Penalties

Rule 71. When any race is in dispute both the horse that was first past the post and any horse claiming the race shall be liable to all the penalties attaching to the winner of that race till the matter be decided.

Rule 72. Penalties for winning a fixed sum shall be understood to mean for winning it in one race unless specified to the contrary.

Rule 73. Penalties are not cumulative unless so declared by the conditions of the race.

Entries, Acceptances, Subscriptions Sale with Engagements

Entries and Acceptances

- Rule 74. (1) Every entry, acceptance and declaration shall be fixed to close at a place and time appointed by the Stewards of the Jockey Club and is subject to withdrawal or alteration up to the time of closing.
- (2) The list of entries shall be closed at the advertised time and no entry shall be admitted on any ground after that time, always excepting that any race or section of a race may be reopened for a further period.
- (3) Every entry is accepted in accordance with the conditions of entry as amended from time to time and the race conditions published in the race prospectus for each race. No withdrawal is permitted once entries are accepted except for the reasons stipulated in the conditions of the entry published in the race prospectus.
