

- (3) If a jockey intends to carry overweight the amount thereof must be declared at the time of declaration. The responsibility for such declaration rests with both the trainer and the jockey. No jockey shall carry more than 2 lb overweight without the permission of the Stewards which will be granted only in exceptional circumstances.
- (4) Any person responsible for making declarations may be penalised for errors contained in the declarations.
- (5) Notwithstanding that a horse which was ineligible to run or was prohibited from running in a race has in fact run in such race, or has been permitted to run in such race, and irrespective of whether or not the horse has won or has been placed in such race or any stake has been paid or awarded, neither the Stewards nor any other Official involved shall thereby incur or be under any liability of any kind whatsoever to any person.
- (6) It shall not be necessary to declare or exhibit fractions of less than one pound.
- (7) Without in any way detracting from the provisions of these Rules, no person shall without a proper or acceptable reason withdraw, induce or encourage the withdrawal of, or be induced to withdraw any horse from any race after entry closing time.

Rule 83. As soon as practicable after the time fixed for declaration the draw allotting positions at the start shall be made by the Stewards or their representatives.

Liability for Entrance Moneys

- Rule 84.
- (1) The nominator as well as every owner of the horse at the time of nomination is liable for the entrance money, but if the entry is transferred to any other person, he is liable only in case of default by the transferee.
  - (2) If so required entrance money and stakes must be paid in cash to the proper authorities to receive them and entrance money must if so required be paid at the time of entry.
  - (3) If a race be never run or be void, stakes, forfeits and entrance money shall be returned.
